"Our goal was to work as a team to combine a proficient office environment with the comfort and beauty that are essential to the Hospice atmosphere. The experience and talents of our Furniture Division team have been instrumental in providing interior solutions for the unique needs of this outstanding facility."

— Jim Pardoe
President, Standard Printing

"Standard Printing & Office Supply exceeded our expectations in every way. Not only did they furnish the perfect solutions for our facility, they raised awareness and gathered support of the community for this vital regional resource. The rewards of working with Standard have gone far beyond the interior."
